A. 教育目標

To be confident when communicating in English.

B. 概要

The class will focus on speaking, enhanced by reading and listening. There will be many activities conducted in pairs or small groups. The students are required to participate in role play projects. It will also feature movie excerpts for discussion to encourage students sharing and expressing their ideas more effectively.

C. 学習上の留意点

Students are expected to be punctual and participate in pair or group work during class. If late or absent, students are still held responsible for all the materials and activities of the class. If students have to be absent, it is crucial that they check with the lecturer or classmates to catch up with the missed course work before the next class. There will be no makeup for exams or presentations.
